[Luk 1:46-47 ESV] 46 And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, 47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,

I. Intro

- A. Magnify:
 - 1. Magnifying lens
 - 2. Magnification on glasses, microscope, rifle scope...When
- B. When we bring in magnification to an object we make it larger, clearer, more detailed
- C. In a sense, that is the joy of the Spirit Filled life, to MAGNIFY the Lord!
- D. Today we look at the words of Mary found in Luke 1.
 - 1. Mary was a chosen instrument
 - 2. Mary fulfilled the role chosen for he by God
 - 3. Mary is not the object of our worship, and as a matter of fact, expresses the exact opposite of that kind of a response in her own words.
- E. We don't magnify Mary, or any other servant of the Lord, We Magnify GOD OUR SAVIOR!

II. Text

- A. My soul: your essence, the fullness of who you are.
- B. Magnify:
 - 1. EXTOL, LAUD
 - 2. to cause to be held in greater esteem or respect
 - 3. to increase in significance: INTENSIFY
 - 4. to enlarge in fact or in appearance
- C. The Lord: He is the one we magnify!
 - 1. We should simply make it a point to allow people to see Jesus when they see us
 - 2. We should be known for how we magnify our Lord rather than how we magnify man or manmade thing.
- D. My spirit rejoices:
 - 1. Rejoice: to feel joy, gladden
 - 2. REJOICE: agaleeao: compound from words that mean "much" and "leap, spring up, qush"
 - a) The image in my mind is of something my body can no longer do without damage...
 - Like a child overflowing with excitement that they leap and squeal without a care of who sees them.
 - 3. Concept: my soul springs up a lot!
 - 4. To rejoice is to have reoccurring joy regarding something
 - 5. That which we grow accustomed to, shall be a reminder of the joy we have in Christ
 - 6. Rejoice!
- E. In God...my savior:
 - 1. Mary is reminded of a story of redemption she has longed for
 - 2. And now she is going to make it into the story
 - 3. Joy and rejoice!

III. Point

- A. Jesus is Enough
 - 1. Listening to sports radio this week:
 - a) Heard some guys discussing mega church Christmas presentations
 - b) Mixture of lost and believers, usually not a deep theological discussion.
 - c) Then, after the story was told of a mega church in Michigan, and some local Dallas churches...one guy asked...

- d) "When did Jesus stop being enough?" "Isn't Jesus enough?" "At what point did we stop needing simply Jesus and need the entertainment factor?"
- 2. Well, those are great questions, and I'm not sure of the answers to all the questions, but I do know that JESUS IS ENOUGH!
- 3. If we strip everything away...what remains?
- 4. Mary:
 - a) Lost her reputation
 - b) Lost control of her own plan
 - c) Lost the desire to ask more questions: (how can this be? Was the only one)
 - d) BUT SHE GAINED JESUS, and that was enough!

B. Jesus is Everything

- 1. We celebrate Jesus this Christmas season, and every other day
- 2. We worship, serve, give, yield to, and MAGNIFY Jesus
- 3. There is no other object of our worship worthy of out time, talent, and treasure
- 4. Jesus will not leave you empty:
 - a) When you serve Christ, you find the riches of His grace
 - b) When you give to the cause of Christ, you find the fulfillment of the promised provision.
 - c) When you use your gifts for the kingdom, you find the blessing of Magnifying Christ with your gifts.
- 5. Serve with Excellence, and find blessing and provision:
 - a) If you desire to find joy in life, serve with gladness
 - b) If you desire blessing from God regarding your finances, Give with Gladness
 - c) If you need your time multiplied so you can get everything done, strip away the things that are unnecessary and find the time and blessing of God.

C. Jesus is our Savior

- 1. My spirit rejoices in God my savior
- 2. My only hope, my only peace, my only worship.
- 3. We get this wrong when we worship the creation rather than the creator:
 - a) No man is worthy of worship other than Jesus.
 - b) No organization is worthy of worship
 - c) No personality or philosophy is worthy of worship
 - d) There is only one savior, and HE IS WORTHY OF WORSHIP.
- 4. We cannot build a kingdom focused church on anything other than kingdom principles learned from our Bible.
 - a) Kingdom churches are not built on personalities of leadership
 - b) Kingdom churches are not built on personalities of Congregations
 - c) Kingdom churches are built on the savior, and the redeemed are drawn to the truth, and sent out with the truth.

IV. Close

- A. Do you want your life to be blessed by Christ? Give it to him!
- B. Give HIM control, and then yield to HIM moment by moment.
- C. Show your commitment by serving with JOY and find yourself REJOICING!
